Dhamma Vijaya, meaning 'Victory of Dhamma', is situated at a distance of 18 km from Eluru, the district head quarters of the West Godavari District of Andhra Pradesh. Eluru is connected by road as well as by train to Vijayawada, a leading city, on National Highway No. 5.

The Centre, located in a three-acre lush green and peaceful coconut grove, started functioning from June 2003 and from then onwards, one 10-day course is being conducted every month from 15th to 26th.

The Centre can accommodate 18 male and 18 female students. Residences are built with inexpensive and locally available materials like coconut leaves and bamboos. The Dhamma Hall can seat 50 students. Dhamma Vijaya has individual cells for meditation.
