Buenos Aires, the largest city in South America and closest big city to Dhamma Sukhadā

Dhamma Sukhadā, meaning ‘Giving Happiness of Dhamma’, is a 23-hectare rectangular piece of land located in the province of Buenos Aires, approximately 85 kilometres (one hour) from the Centre of the city of Buenos Aires – the largest city in Argentina and the capital of the country. The small town close to the property is Brandsen.

The property, newly purchased by the Vipassana Argentina Trust, is ideal for a meditation Centre. The entire plot of land is flat, located in the quiet countryside and has good road access. The trees in the middle are eucalyptus trees surrounding a water mill. There is plenty of water on the land and throughout the area. The trust will start construction as soon as there are sufficient funds.
