CIRCULAR

Vipassana Research Institute, Dhammagiri, Igatpuri, Dist. Nasik conducts various residential vipassana courses of different duration at their local centers. Such courses are also successfully conducted by this institute at Government Training Centre 'Yashada'. Similarly the courses are also being conducted at various jails in the State and other States for the benefit of the prisoners. State Government employees have already been given concession to attend the 10 day vipassana course. It is observed that these courses are beneficial for bringing positive changes in concentration of mind, thinking process and conduct. Anapan meditation courses have been taught for last many years to the children in Mumbai Municipal Corporation and other schools and it has brought very good improvement in the students.

Anapan meditation is the first step in learning Vipassana. Through Anapan courses children are able to face with confidence the fear of examination, anxieties and pressures of childhood and adolescence. Anapan gives them insight into the working of their own minds, making their thought process positive and helps them build inner strength and confidence enabling them to control their conduct and thought process.

This is provided in three steps : In the first step the students practice abstinence from killing, stealing, lying, sexual misconduct and the consumption of intoxicants. These form the foundation of this technique. By observation of these precepts and with the help of self discipline students can successfully control their unruly mind. In the second step through Anapan practice they focus attention on the breathing process. Thereby they experience the movement of breath as it comes in and goes out naturally. In the third step, through Anapan
